Driving Record Abstract

Choose Abstract

Please determine the type of record you would like to purchase. There are two types of driving record abstracts. All driving records are certified by the Secretary of State. Please note that your driving record or records may be multiple pages in length.

Name	[REDACTED]
Driver's License Number	[REDACTED]

- Affected (“Court Purposes”) Driving Record Abstract – $12

This abstract will include all actions on your driving record. This record contains confidential information, such as court supervision dispositions, that are not included on a public driving record abstract. This record is only available to the affected driver (and his/her attorney), prosecutors, law enforcement and the courts. Therefore, you are advised that if you share this driving record abstract with anyone other than a prosecutor, law enforcement or a court, you may be providing confidential information that the person could not otherwise obtain from the Secretary of State.

- Public Driving Record Abstract – $12
A public record will contain your driving history and will include any suspensions, revocations or convictions for traffic violations that may appear on your record. It is the same record that an insurance company or employer could purchase from our office.
- Both Records – $24
